Making Changes to Serve You Better!

Thank you for your support

The Homewood Library Board of Trustees and the Library Staff would like to thank the community for the support and patience shown during the Library's recent remodeling project. Please plan to visit the Library soon and check out the new story hour room, study rooms and coffee corner. Now that the physical remodeling is complete, the Library will be moving into a second phase of the project which will include the selection of new furnishings. This is a much smaller part of the project and will not cause a disruption to patron service.

The Library Board and Administration would also like to thank the library staff for working so hard to bring this project to completion. Dedicated staff worked in construction dust and noise during most of the summer and fall and yet remained upbeat, positive and productive. This continued commitment to quality service makes the Homewood Library the best it can be.

Again, thank you to everyone who supported this project.

Homewood Library Board News

The Homewood Library Board of Trustees recently appointed a new member to fill a vacant position on the Board. Regina Davis-Bridges was officially seated on the Board after being sworn in at the November meeting. Ms. Davis-Bridges has been an active Homewood community member for over 15 years and her experience working with other boards and taxing districts will be an asset to the Library Board.

East Hazel Crest Library Board News

The East Hazel Crest Library Board supported its community this fall by providing bags for the annual Halloween and Christmas events for children. The bags contained library information encouraging library card sign-up. The East Hazel Crest Library Board of Trustees has provided library service to the village through its continued contract for service with the Homewood Library. This successful partnership has existed for over 15 years.

HHS's Vice President, Jim Wright, has been busy signing copies of his new book, The Dixie Highway in Illinois, at various libraries in the area, including, of course, the Homewood Library. Copies of the book are available at our library, as well as at the Dorband-Howe House museum.

April 14- Desperadoes: Notorious Lawbreakers of Early Illinois.

Friends support grows

The Friends of the Homewood Library continue to be one of the Library's most valuable assets and regularly provide financial support of the library with funds raised through book sales. Recently the Friends donated over $5000 to the Library to make it eligible to receive a matching grant from the Gates Foundation. The grant money will be used to upgrade patron accessed computers and software.

The Friends group has also created a second organization for youth members that is named the Junior Friends of the Library. This group supports the activities of the Friends organization by having bake sales during book sales and by assisting with other Friends activities. During the holiday season the youth group showed its support of the library by making gifts for each staff member.

Want to Contact Us? E-mail us at friendsofthehomewoodlibrary@gmail.com

Jr. Friends of the Homewood Library

The Junior Friends of the Homewood Library (JFoHL) is a relatively new group composed of Friends members of high school age and younger. The group meets every month or so to participate in a different activity: in November the kids assembled snack bags for the volunteers who assist with the book sales; another recent project was to make "cookie kits" as a year-end bonus for our wonderful library staff. The meetings are fun and productive, and open to youth members who sign up in advance. A New Year's Eve-Eve meeting on December 30 will feature pizza and the chance to tackle another timely project.

Annual membership in the Jr. Friends of the Homewood Library is just $2 per year for kids high school age and younger. Membership forms and more information are available at the library's youth desk.
